STRESS BUSTERS: STRESS LESS, SMILE MORE

Play Some Music

Music can help you to relieve stress and either calm yourself down or stimulate your mind as your situation warrants. So get your groove on or relax with that smooth jazz!

County Updates

2021-2022 STOCK SHOW TIPS

Health Papers

Be sure to check the show rules to see if you need Health Papers for your animals! Most breeding animals for most shows will need them!

Review Your Entries

Be sure to look over the entries you submitted for each show. If you have copies, take them with you!

Study the Schedule!

Don't miss the show, study the schedule!

Read the Rules!

Each show has their own rules and regulations. Know what they are ahead of time to avoid any mistakes. If you can, print them and take them with you or bookmark them on your phone so you can find them easily.

Know the Parking

Each show has a parking map and/or instructions on their website.

Ask for Help– BEFORE– You Go!

If you need help, have questions, etc. ask before you go! We are here to help you and want your major show experience to be the best it can be.

If you need assistant during the show you can contact the Extension Office at (830) 393-7357 or text Courtney at (512) 537-8239.
